Thank you for your patience during May! Here's to a trouble-free June...

DON'T FORGET...
All notices for next week's newsletter to be sent to the Parish Office by Tuesday. Thank you!

WELCOME...please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. Children are very welcome and accessible facilities are available (ask to be directed by a Sides-person). Also ask for the Sunday School & crèche at St Peter's – operating most Sundays except the first Sunday, when we encourage young families (and anyone liking a more informal service) to come to the monthly Goodnews@10.

ST PETER'S GATE – We are sure you've already noticed that there has been some damage to the gate post on the entrance to the church. Whilst we wait for the repairs to be completed we ask that everyone takes extra care when entering and exiting the church premises.

SKYDIVE FOR MACMILLAN CARING LOCALLY – Carolyn Emsley would like to give a HUGE thank you to everyone who sponsored her. She managed to raise a whopping £5,222.71. Well done Carolyn!!

Collect

O God the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Acts 1.6-14

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.'

When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.'

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas,

Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

1 Peter 4.12-14; 5.6-11

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice in so far as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed.

If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.

Discipline yourselves; keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.

And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

John 17.1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.

All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

Post Communion

Eternal God, giver of love and power, your Son Jesus Christ has sent us into all the world to preach the gospel of his kingdom: confirm us in this mission, and help us to live the good news we proclaim; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Today we welcome to St. Peter's, the new Mayor of Bournemouth, Lawrence Williams and his chaplain, Rabbi Adrian Jesner, Rav of Bournemouth Hebrew Congregation.

Lawrence Williams was a Ward Councillor and Cabinet Portfolio holder for Tourism, Leisure & The Arts for the past six years. He is a former radio broadcaster who went on to own an advertising agency and is very proud to be representing not only the Jewish community but also his adopted home town.

He is reported as saying he will be a "proudly Jewish" Mayor of Bournemouth. He is a past president of Bournemouth Hebrew Congregation and his mayoral charity will be the local Jewish care home, Hannah Levy House.

He further hopes to lead a trip to Netanya, which was twinned with Bournemouth in 1984 by one of the town's previous Jewish mayors, Councillor Michael Filer.

Rabbi Adrian Jesner studied in Israeli yeshivot and gained semicha from Rabbi Moshe Levin (the late Chief Rabbi of Netanya, the Chief Rabbi of Haifa Shaer Yashuv Cohen shlita, and Mahcon Harry Fishel of the Israeli Rabbinate Yeshiva). He also has a degree from the Israel Torah Research Institute and is formerly the minister of the Reading Jewish Community.

Before moving to Reading, Rabbi Jesner served the Glasgow Jewish community for more than two decades at a number of synagogues. He was also Chaplain to H.M. Prisons in Scotland for 25 years and was a member of the Advisory Committee for Prisoner Management.

He is a Vice-President of the Prince & Princess of Wales Hospice in Glasgow and a trustee of the Glasgow Jewish Community Trust.
