MONDAY 30TH OCTOBER - A CHANCE TO HELP!

alternate Mondays, 6pm-7.30pm St. Peter's Church.

We will be working again on Monday evenings with the Salvation Army from Monday 30th October when we invite the poor and homeless to come into the back of the church where, for an hour or so, we provide hot drinks and biscuits to supplement the Salvation Army hot food and the homeless can be in the dry and light as opposed to being outside in the cold and damp.

Can you help by pouring tea or coffee and simply being yourself, showing them that we care? It would involve 6 – 7.30pm on alternate Mondays. If you would like to know more, please talk to Pauline Burns, Linda Mayne, John Bicker or Martin Slade ... you will not regret it! Thank you.

WEDNESDAY 18TH OCTOBER – LUNCHTIME RECITAL – St Peter's Church, 1.15-1.45pm Sam Hanson. Retiring Collection. Parry's Café OPEN

WEDNESDAY 18th OCTOBER – SOUND & VOICE CONCERT & EXHIBITION – a multimedia exhibition of artwork, creative writing & drama by local students exploring the stories of the 7th Hampshire Regiment Bournemouth men in WW1 & scholars of St Peter's School, which was attached to St Peter's Church, with an evening concert from the Bath Philharmonic Orchestra, Bournemouth School Musicians & BS/BSG & St Peter's choirs. They will be performing a specially commissioned piece of music based on the 23 men on the memorial. Not to be missed!

Contact Alice Miller for tickets and details – stoneandvoice@gmail.com

THURSDAY 19TH OCTOBER – SPECIAL PAROCHIAL CHURCH MEETING – 10am, St. Augustin's Church, to adopt an instrument that delegates authority from the PCC to DCCs of BTCP. Please see the notice and accompanying documents up in each church. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, "The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy.

Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet." Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so, the wedding hall was filled with guests.

But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, "Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?" And he was speechless.

Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

Post Communion Prayer

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever. Amen

WELCOME

Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. Children are very welcome and accessible facilities are available (ask to be directed by a Sides-person). Also ask for the Sunday School & crèche at St Peter's – operating most Sundays except the first Sunday of each month.

On the first Sunday of each month we encourage young families and anyone else liking a more informal, short service, to come to the monthly Goodnews@10. All welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS – to Safeena & Mark Holiday on the safe arrival of Alice Kathleen Holiday, born on 1st October and to Lisa & John Corner on the early arrival (4 weeks!) of little Dominic James Corner, born on 11th October 2017. Such wonderful news! Hopefully we will get to cuddle the newest members of St Peter's very soon!

STUDY GROUP - every Friday at 12pm, in the downstairs meeting room in St. Peter's Church. We are starting to explore John's Gospel. Everyone welcome. Contact Richard Lambert for further details on 07404 603603

PRAYER GROUP – Monday 16th October, 7.30pm, the Parish Office, St. Peter's Church. This usually takes place on the 3rd Monday of each month. Everyone welcome. For more info, contact Tim Moorhouse or Ian Terry or just come along to see what it's all about.

MUSIC FOR MEMORY – Every Tuesday, 11-12.30pm, St. Peter's Church. Following the success of the Arts 4 Dementia programme, Gemma Dixon & Tim Rice are continuing their great work, running this vocal harmony and organ group for people with dementia or early memory loss, their carers and friends. Everyone welcome – beginners or experienced singers. For more info, contact Gemma on 07891838969 or just come along and see how the music relieves tension and anxiety and helps brain function. See flyers in church for full details.

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Isaiah 25.1-9

O Lord, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure. For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the palace of aliens is a city no more, it will never be rebuilt.

Therefore, strong peoples will glorify you; cities of ruthless nations will fear you. For you have been a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in their distress, a shelter from the rainstorm and a shade from the heat. When the blast of the ruthless was like a winter rainstorm, the noise of aliens like heat in a dry place, you subdued the heat with the shade of clouds; the song of the ruthless was stilled.

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Philippians 4: 1-9

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Matthew 22: 1-14

Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. "Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet." But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them.
