

The Shelley Family a doorway to history...

Mary's body & Percy's heart buried here

and

William Godwin & Mary Wollstonecraft

How is Bournemouth celebrating this illustrious and multi-talented family?

An opportunity not to be missed

2018 marks 200th anniversary publication of 'Frankenstein'

Not just a one-off – but an annual Festival?

& it's not only about Frankenstein ...

Literary connections

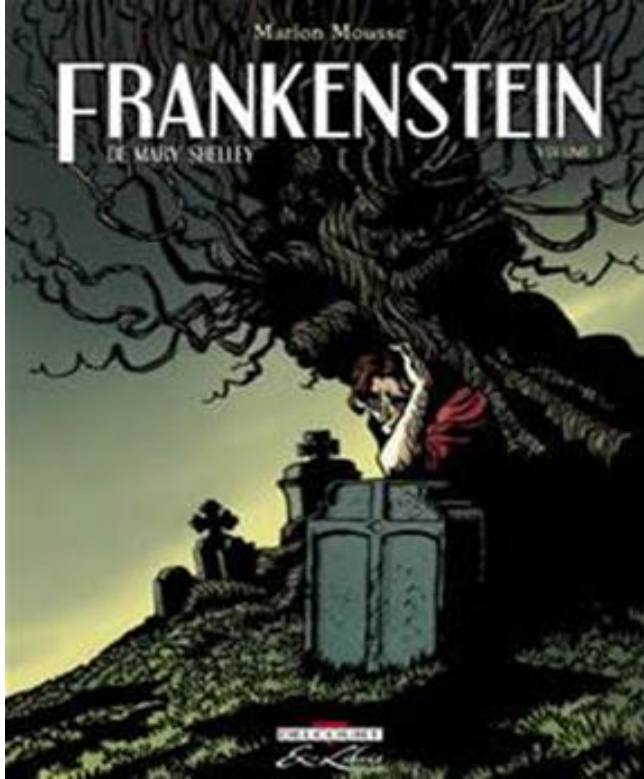

Ethical & sociological questions: How we cope with 'the other' ...

So what are we doing about it?

PAVILLION DANCE: w/b 22 Oct

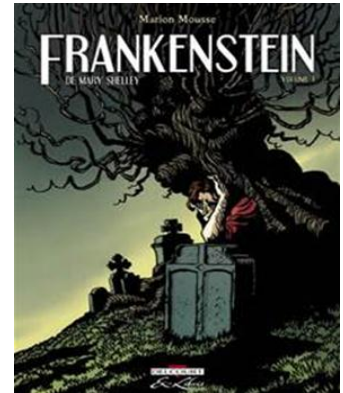

Academic Conference BU + AUB:

31st Oct + 1st Nov,

based in St Peter's

- Prof Sir Christopher Frayling: Weds 31st Oct

- Launch of Locative App in St Peter's Churchyard, at Mary Shelley's tomb
- Halloween Gala Dinner: Marsham Court Hotel
7.30 pm £30 – 3 courses & entertainment
- Prof Elaine Graham: 7.30 pm Thurs, 1st Nov.:
“Frankenstein – a modern myth?”

Friday, 2nd November based in St Peter's

- Sharing outcomes of creative writing in local schools (Talbot Heath + BCS Prep) on Frankenstein themes

- 'Frankenstein': Cabinet of Living Cinema – film & live music event: evening

Saturday, 3rd Nov in St Peter's

- 11.30 am Coda Fiddle Orchestra: 'Spooky Music'

- 4.30 pm Music 'when soft voices die'.

PB Shelley: University Music

- 11pm onwards 'Church for the Night' by Nightclub Chaplaincy

Sunday, 4th Nov in St Peter's

- 10am “So what’s Frankenstein got to do with Christianity?” a public conversation between Prof Elaine Graham & Prof Andrew Bradstock

- 4pm Choral Evensong: St Peter's Choir + Christchurch Priory Choir

6, 7, 8 Dec: in St Peter's

'Shelley's Voice': AUB drama, creative writing & music

Own your Festival

Promote - Partner - Participate

ianterry@live.co.uk