WELCOME

Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. Children are very welcome and accessible facilities are available (ask to be directed by a Sides-person). Also ask for the Sunday School & crèche at St Peter's. All welcome.

ST STEPHEN'S - NEW PERMITS are now available from Adrian Scott for Sunday morning parking in the St Stephen's Way underpass car park opposite the church. This relieves the pressure in the church car park.

OPENING OF ST STEPHEN'S - The church had to be locked 4 days this past week. Please sign up if you can help with opening/closing the church during the summer months.

BRENDA GINEVER - We have just heard from Rev'd Paul Ginever that his mother has moved into a residential home: Wessex Lodge, 16 Munster Road, Poole, BH14 9PU. She would be delighted to receive visitors!

TRIP TO WELLS - After setting off slightly late arriving, with a coffee stop at Dorchester, we arrived in Glastonbury just after 11. Some visited the cathedral with others going to the Bishop's Palace Gardens and the market was on so we wandered round there for a short while. The day was warm but enjoyable with quite a few eateries in Glastonbury and these were sampled by the majority of the group. Everyone enjoyed themselves and want to know when the next one is. Watch this space.

REV DR PHILIP KRINKS –

Next Sunday St Peter's welcomes the Rev'd Dr Philip Krinks. Philip is a former Partner of management consultants BCG and now serves as Director of St Martin's Partnership, which helps social enterprises, businesses, charities and public bodies to grow and develop sustainably and to expand their contribution to the common good. He is Priest-in-charge, St Faith's Winchester.

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ESEKIEL 17: 22-end

Thus, says the Lord God: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel, I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken; I will accomplish it.

2 CORINTHIANS 5: 6-10 [11-13] 14-17

So, we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord - for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So, whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

[Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences. We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart. For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.]

For the love of Christ urges us on because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore, all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them.

From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

MARK 4:26-34

He also said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.'

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen
