Ian Harrison was a chorister at Blackburn Cathedral and studied the organ with John Bertalot. He subsequently trained at the Royal Manchester College of Music and read music at Durham University. Whilst there he continued his organ studies with Alan Thurlow.

He is currently the Organist and Director of Music at St. Stephen's Church in Bournemouth, having recently retired from teaching.

He is a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists and of Trinity College of Music, London. In 2009 Ian was made an Honorary Fellow of the Guild of Church Musicians.

The next organ concert is on Saturday 9th March, given by Simon Earl. Please do take a leaflet about the organ concerts and our May Festival 2019.
