ST STEPHEN'S HALL - The hall is a vital part of the church's mission and finances. Dena & Rosemary are finally stepping down after many years of faithful service, running the bookings & maintenance of the hall. Our grateful thanks to them both. We need volunteers to step up and help run the hall, even if only in a small way, so please come and talk to a member of the DCC. The more the better!

BTCP LENT COURSE

The current Lent Course (on Thursdays, 1- 2pm in the Resurrection Chapel throughout Lent) is open to anyone, to benefit most, order yourself a copy of Rowan Williams book, 'Being Disciples' and keep your reading, thinking, praying about it all. Rowan offers questions for discussion/reflection at the end of each chapter and we shall use those as 'jumping-off' points in discussion.

PREPARATION OF NEW ELECTORAL ROLL FOR 2019

As you may, or may not be aware, every six years each parish is required to prepare a new electoral roll.

A notice will be displayed on or near the main door of each church in the parish from 28th Feb & once the notice is up, the preparation of the new electoral roll begins. We will endeavour to ensure that reasonable efforts are made to let everyone on the old electoral roll know that a new one is being prepared but any help spreading the word would be appreciated!

During the period of preparation of the roll, members on the previous roll need to apply to be included - inclusion is not automatic. New congregants can also apply during this period. You apply by filling out an application for enrolment form that will be available in church during the preparation period. The preparation period of the roll will end on the 14th April, after which time no new names can be added until after the APCM on April 29th 2019.

ST STEPHEN'S MAY FESTIVAL 2019

Before we know it, May Bank holiday weekend will be upon us, and with it will bring the May Music Festival at St Stephen's. Flyers are all at the back of church, with full details of each of the twelve events that are crammed into the three-day festival so please take one and book your tickets from Anne Lloyd. All details of how to do this are on the flyer.

Ian Harrison would also like as many of you as possible to become a 'Patron' of the festival & supporter of the 'Choral Fund', by giving a donation, anything from £25, to keep this festival a thriving annual tradition. Details of how to do this are also on the flyer and if you're a tax payer, this can also be eligible for gift aid! By donating before March 15th, your name will be included in the festival brochure.

WELCOME

Welcome to St Stephen's. Please do make yourselves known to the "Welcomers" at the door. We are very pleased to see you and hope you enjoy the service. Please stay for refreshments afterwards, which are served at the back of church, where you will have a chance to meet members of this community. Toilet facilities are available in the North Porch at the back of church.

COLLECT

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ fasted forty days in the wilderness, and was tempted as we are, yet without sin: give us grace to discipline ourselves in obedience to your Spirit; and, as you know our weakness, so may we know your power to save; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

DEUTERONOMY 26.1-11

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him,

‘Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us.’ When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: ‘A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.’

You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

ROMANS 10.8B-13

But what does it say? ‘The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart’ (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

The scripture says, ‘No one who believes in him will be put to shame.’ For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, ‘Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’

LUKE 4.1-13

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.’ Jesus answered him, ‘It is written, “One does not live by bread alone.”’

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, ‘To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.’ Jesus answered him, ‘It is written, “Worship the Lord your God and serve only him.”’

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, “He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you”, and “On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.”’

Jesus answered him, ‘It is said, “Do not put the Lord your God to the test.”’ When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

POST COMMUNION

Lord God, you have renewed us with the living bread from heaven; by it you nourish our faith, increase our hope, and strengthen our love: teach us always to hunger for him who is the true and living bread, and enable us to live by every word that proceeds from out of your mouth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
