LAZY COMPLINE - ST STEPHEN'S CHURCH

Relax in the peace of the church and experience the spiritual sound of evening prayer being chanted by candlelight. The ancient office of Compline derives its name from a Latin word meaning 'completion' and is a service of quietness and reflection before rest at the end of the day. It is most effective when the ending is indeed an ending, without additions, conversation or noise and those present depart in silence. Services will be at 8pm on Saturday 31st August, 5th October and the 2nd & 30th November 2019.

RAF ASSOCIATION CITY COLLECTION

They are looking for volunteers to join RAF personnel, collecting donations on Friday 30th & Saturday 31st August to raise funds for the Royal Air Forces Association during the Bournemouth Air Festival. Your fundraising helps RAF personnel past and present in need and their families from practical to emotional support. If you are over 18 and would enjoy spending a few hours or even the whole day to help support the event, please come along and join us! Email: fundraising@rafa.org.uk or Call: 0800 018 2361 for more information, or see the posters or flyers in church.

LEAP OF FAITH - ABSEIL ST PETER'S TOWER

Once again, we are joining forces with RBH to raise money and asking you to abseil down the south face of our tower, on Sat 14th Sept from 9.30am-4pm. This year our aim is to raise £4.5k for the Development Project, who are seeking to approach various Grant-making bodies and secure match-funding for new, much-needed, ground level toilets. The cost of the new loos is approximately £9k, so 50% of that amount.

Please pluck up the courage yourself, coerce your children, family & friends and get them to sign up with Alice Miller asap. It would be wonderful to get lots of abseilers. so let's see what we can do people!

INVEST IN PEACE

St Peter's Church & Bournemouth Hebrew Congregation invite you to hear the stories of two peace activists: one Israeli and one Palestinian, on Thursday 19th September at 7pm. Tickets are £4, Phone: 01202 557433 (option 6) or Online: PeaceBournemouth.eventbrite.co.uk All proceeds to 'Solutions Not Sides'. The venue is in Bournemouth and will be sent to all registered attendees. All welcome.

WELCOME

Welcome to St Stephen's. Please do make yourselves known to the "Welcomers" at the door. We are very pleased to see you and hope you enjoy the service. Please stay for refreshments afterwards, which are served at the back of church, where you will have a chance to meet members of this community. Toilet facilities are available in the North Porch at the back of church.

COLLECT

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ECCLESIASTICUS 10.12-18

The beginning of human pride is to forsake the Lord, the heart has withdrawn from its Maker.

For the beginning of pride is sin and the one who clings to it pours out abominations.

Therefore, the Lord brings upon them unheard-of calamities and destroys them completely.

The Lord overthrows the thrones of rulers and enthrones the lowly in their place.

The Lord plucks up the roots of the nations and plants the humble in their place.

The Lord lays waste the lands of the nations and destroys them to the foundations of the earth. He removes some of them and destroys them and erases the memory of them from the earth.

Pride was not created for human beings, or violent anger for those born of women.

HEBREWS 13.1-8,15,16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.'

So, we can say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

LUKE 14.1,7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

POST COMMUNION

Lord of all mercy, we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace: by our communion keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel and preserve us from all sin; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
