LAZY COMPLINE - ST STEPHEN'S CHURCH

Relax in the peace of the church and experience the spiritual sound of evening prayer being chanted by candlelight. The ancient office of Compline derives its name from a Latin word meaning 'completion' and is a service of quietness and reflection before rest at the end of the day. It is most effective when the ending is indeed an ending, without additions, conversation or noise and those present depart in silence. Services will be at 8pm on Saturday 31st August, 5th October and the 2nd & 30th November 2019.

RAF ASSOCIATION CITY COLLECTION

They are looking for volunteers to join RAF personnel, collecting donations on Friday 30th & Saturday 31st August to raise funds for the Royal Air Forces Association during the Bournemouth Air Festival. Your fundraising helps RAF personnel past and present in need and their families from practical to emotional support. If you are over 18 and would enjoy spending a few hours or even the whole day to help support the event, please come along and join us! Email: fundraising@rafa.org.uk or Call: 0800 018 2361 for more information, or see the posters or flyers in church.

LEAP OF FAITH - ABSEIL ST PETER'S TOWER

Once again, we are joining forces with RBH to raise money and asking you to abseil down the south face of our tower, on Sat 14th Sept from 9.30am-4pm. This year our aim is to raise £4.5k for the Development Project, who are seeking to approach various Grant-making bodies and secure match-funding for new, much-needed, ground level toilets. The cost of the new loos is approximately £9k, so 50% of that amount.

Please pluck up the courage yourself, coerce your children, family & friends and get them to sign up with Alice Miller asap. It would be wonderful to get lots of abseilers. so let's see what we can do people!

INVEST IN PEACE

St Peter's Church & Bournemouth Hebrew Congregation invite you to hear the stories of two peace activists: one Israeli and one Palestinian, on Thursday 19th September at 7pm. Tickets are £4, Phone: 01202 557433 (option 6) or Online: PeaceBournemouth.eventbrite.co.uk All proceeds to 'Solutions Not Sides'. The venue is in Bournemouth and will be sent to all registered attendees. All welcome.

WELCOME

Welcome to St Stephen's. Please do make yourselves known to the "Welcomers" at the door. We are very pleased to see you and hope you enjoy the service. Please stay for refreshments afterwards, which are served at the back of church, where you will have a chance to meet members of this community. Toilet facilities are available in the North Porch at the back of church.

COLLECT

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ISAIAH 58.9B-14

Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

The Lord will guide you continually and satisfy your needs in parched places and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

If you refrain from trampling the sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the sabbath a delight and the holy day of the Lord honourable; if you honour it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests, or pursuing your own affairs; then you shall take delight in the Lord and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

HEBREWS 12.18-29

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken - that is, created things - so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

LUKE 13.10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

POST COMMUNION

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
