CARDS FOR GOOD CAUSES

The annual Charity Card Shop is back again in St Peter's Church, from Friday 18th October. This year marks their 60th Anniversary, with a great selection of products on offer, so please come and buy your Christmas Cards etc. from them, as not only does it support many worthy charities but also raises money for Cards for Good Causes and for St Peter's Church too.

'UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURES'

Richard Lambert, a St Peter's treasure, has produced a three-volume book (£10 per copy) to help us all better understand the Bible (& Quran). The three volumes cover: What are the scriptures? How were the scriptures produced? and What do the scriptures mean? Packed full of interesting facts, he is donating all proceeds from these sales to the church, so please pop along to Marion's Bookstall from today and pick up your copies – he may even sign them for you!!

COACH TRIP TO BATH CHRISTMAS MARKET

Ruth Beasant is once again organising the next BTCP coach trip – this time to Bath's Christmas Market, on Thursday 28th November 2019. Collection from the bus stop near St Augustin's will be at 7.45am and will return around 7pm, traffic dependant. To book your place, contact Ruth on 07467 247277 before October 31st. Tickets are only £20 (plus £2 for the raffle and also the driver's tip!) All welcome. Pick up a flyer in church today. Bath is a such a beautiful city, and the day will be yours to do with as you please. It is known for its Roman-built baths. Bath Abbey was founded in the 7th Century and it was rebuilt a few times, latterly after the Bath Blitz during WWII. Jane Austen also lived in Bath in the early 19th Century, so enjoy a day away discovering it all!

She set two of her novels there, Northanger Abbey, which she wrote whilst living there, and Persuasion, which she wrote a decade after she left. Both capture Bath as it was at the time, so well worth a read if you want to immerse yourself in the history before you go!

WELCOME

Welcome to St Stephen's. Please do make yourselves known to the "Welcomers" at the door. We are very pleased to see you and hope you enjoy the service. Please stay for refreshments afterwards, which are served at the back of church, where you will have a chance to meet members of this community. Toilet facilities are available in the North Porch at the back of church.

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments and win the crown of everlasting joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

GENESIS 32.22-31

The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day is breaking.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go, unless you bless me.' So, he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then the man said, 'You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked him, 'Please tell me your name.' But he said, 'Why is it that you ask my name?' And there he blessed him. So, Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, 'For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved.' The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

2 TIMOTHY 3.14 - 4.5

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

LUKE 18.1-8

Then Jesus told them a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart. He said, 'In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for people. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "Grant me justice against my opponent." For a while he refused; but later he said to himself, "Though I have no fear of God and no respect for anyone, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'" And the Lord said, 'Listen to what the unjust judge says. And will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, he will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?'

POST COMMUNION

We praise and thank you, O Christ, for this sacred feast: for here we receive you, here the memory of your passion is renewed, here our minds are filled with grace, and here a pledge of future glory is given, when we shall feast at that table where you reign with all your saints for ever. Amen
