CHRISTINGLE SERVICE

On Sunday 1st December at our 10am Communion Service, St Peter's will be holding the annual Christingle Service. This year we are very fortunate to have the Diocese team in with us, filming the service, as they are travelling around the diocese, filming various services, to showcase best practice services across our Christian calendar. So, please bring yourselves and your friends and family (this is a service that children particularly enjoy) and join in the festivities, with mince pies and chat afterwards.

CHRISTMAS FAIR HELP

The Christmas Fayre is in 2 weeks & we need your help!! Goadsby's & Lacey's Solicitors have sponsored the event again but we need you to bring in donations for the bottle and gift tombolas as well as jewellery, cakes, raffle and auction prizes and bric-a-brac. Please read your flyer and give generously!

WRESTLING WITH CHOICES

In partnership with Dorset Police, St Peter's Church will be hosting town centre ethics forums, on Monday lunchtimes, 1-1.45pm, with refreshments available from our café area, Dates run from 20th January to 23rd March 2020. There will be a short presentation setting the scene and then an open floor for all to join in the debate. Topics will vary from 'the ethics of surveillance' also 'covert policing' to "is ending life ever justified". We much hope that you and your friends will want to take part, so please note the dates and come along and join in. Look out for full details in the next week or so.

COLLECT

Eternal Father, whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King: keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

JEREMIAH 23.1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So, I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

COLOSSIANS 1.11-20

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers - all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

LUKE 23.33-43

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.' And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'
