CARDS FOR GOOD CAUSES

The annual Charity Card Shop is back again in St Peter's Church. This year marks their 60th Anniversary, with a great selection of products on offer, so please come and buy your Christmas Cards etc. from them, as not only does it support many worthy charities but also raises money for Cards for Good Causes and for St Peter's Church.

'UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURES'

Richard Lambert, a St Peter's treasure, has produced a three-volume book (£10 per copy) to help us all better understand the Bible (& Quran). The three volumes cover: What are the scriptures? How were the scriptures produced? and What do the scriptures mean? Packed full of interesting facts, he is donating all proceeds from these sales to the church, so please pick up your copies from Marion's Bookstall – he may even sign them for you!!

CONFIRMATION SHARED LUNCH - 3RD NOVEMBER

We will be welcoming the Bishop of Southampton, Bishop Debbie Sellin to St Peter's on 3rd November. After the Confirmation service will be hosting a 'shared lunch' for everyone who wishes to stay afterwards to mingle, chat and continue the celebrations. Please bring along a plate of something to add to the feast and ensure a good spread. For ideas of what to bring, contact Lisa in the office - btcp@live.co.uk All welcome!

COACH TRIP TO BATH CHRISTMAS MARKET

Ruth Beasant is organising the next BTCP coach trip – this time to Bath's Christmas Market, on Thursday 28th November 2019. Collection from the bus stop near St Augustin's will be at 7.45am and will return around 7pm, traffic dependant. To book your place, only 9 spots left, contact Ruth on 07467 247277 before November 17th. Tickets are only £20 (plus £2 for the raffle and also the driver's tip!) All welcome. Pick up a flyer in church today. Bath is a such a beautiful city, and the day will be yours to do with as you please. It is known for its Roman-built baths. Bath Abbey was founded in the 7th Century and it was rebuilt a few times, latterly after the Bath Blitz during WWII. Jane Austen also lived in Bath in the early 19th Century, so enjoy a day away discovering it all! She set two of her novels there, Northanger Abbey, which she wrote whilst living there, and Persuasion, which she wrote a decade after she left. Both capture Bath as it was at the time, so well worth a read if you want to immerse yourself in the history before your trip.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY - 10TH NOVEMBER

Please note that the Remembrance Service at St Peter's Church begins at 9:50am instead of the usual 10am start!

WELCOME

Welcome to St Stephen's. Please do make yourselves known to the "Welcomers" at the door. We are very pleased to see you and hope you enjoy the service. Please stay for refreshments afterwards, which are served at the back of church, where you will have a chance to meet members of this community. Toilet facilities are available in the North Porch at the back of church.

REGULAR FEATURES IN BTCP

This term, we are following the book 'This Sunrise of Wonder' by Michael Maine. In a series of twenty-four letters Michael Mayne makes an offering to his grandchildren of all that has inspired him in literature, music and art. Written in a candid autobiographical fashion, it is a confession of how he came to unify his outer and inner worlds, the ordinariness and yet the extraordinariness of everything... Parry's Café will be OPEN

BIBLE STUDY GROUP – Downstairs meeting room, St Peter's Church, every Friday at 12.30pm. Continuing to study Genesis. All welcome. Just come along or contact Richard Lambert: 07404 608603.

ST PETER'S RINGERS – A Quarter Peel. Takes place on the first Friday of the month at 12.30pm. If you are interested in bell ringing, either joining or learning more about it all, please contact Peter Murdock-Saint or Romy Coldman at: stpetersringers@gmail.com

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

DANIEL 7.1-3,15-18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another.

As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So, he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most-High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever - for ever and ever.'

EPHESIANS 1.11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church,²³ which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

LUKE 6.20-31

Then he looked up at his disciples and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 'Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. 'Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. 'But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation.

'Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. 'Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. 'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. 'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

POST COMMUNION

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
