ETHICS FORUM - THIS MONDAY

For this week's Ethics Forum on 'Artificial Intelligence - management of data', we have two expert panellists:

Dr Vegard Engent is Deputy Head of Department in Computing & Informatics and Programme Leader for the BSc (hons) in Data Science and Analytics at Bournemouth University. His technical expertise includes several flavours of artificial intelligence, including machine learning, computational intelligence and nature-inspired search and optimisation. He completed a PhD in 2010 on network-based intrusion detection using machine learning and has worked on several cross-disciplinary projects involving intelligent decision support systems in areas such as public health, policy making and shipping route planning.

Dr Christopher Richardson from Digital Smart Solutions is a Global Information Assurance Practitioner who founded their EdTech start-up to exploit the use of technology in personalised Digital Education Platform Services and in particular building the smart micro-accrediting Hyperconnected Student Learning Environment (HSLE). He is an internationally recognised chartered engineer and researcher, having conducted many collaborative security projects involving Socio-Technical Systems (STS), digital investigations, developing degree programmes and exploring the use of Nano-Smart Learning. As an engineer and lecturer, he has a diverse knowledge and understanding of trusted STS, Information Assurance (IA), DLT, Blockchain and SMART Contracts, enterprise security and coincidentally, he is also a qualified teacher (QTS). Chief Superintendent Ben Hargreaves, of Dorset Police completes another impressive line-up!

SHELLEY LEGACIES HERITAGE DAY

Come along to the Shelley Theatre and join in, as the legacies of the Shelley family in Bournemouth and Boscombe are explored. The Legacies Heritage Day will comprise of an interview with Dr Stephen Hebron about the Shelley papers in the Bodleian Library and their connection to Boscombe; a talk from Dr David Coates about Sir Percy Florence Shelley, his private theatre and Bournemouth and a talk from Lord Abinger about his ancestors - the Shelley family - including insights into some of the lesser known members. These talks will incorporate previously unpublished images and artefacts and newly located archival materials. The day will culminate with a reading of one of Percy Florence Shelley's short plays, and is the first time this play will be performed since it was originally staged at Boscombe Manor over 150 years ago. A real treat! Visit the Shelley Theatre website: www.shelleytheatre.co.uk or pick up a flyer in church.

COLLECT

Almighty God, who alone can bring order to the unruly wills and passions of sinful humanity: give your people grace so to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, among the many changes of this world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ISAIAH 58.1–9A

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practised righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgements, they delight to draw near to God. 'Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?' Look, you serve your own interest on your fast-day and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

1 CORINTHIANS 2.1–12

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come proclaiming the mystery of God to you in lofty words or wisdom. For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified. And I came to you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. My speech and my proclamation were not with plausible words of wisdom, but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith might rest not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

Yet among the mature we do speak wisdom, though it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to perish. But we speak God's wisdom, secret and hidden, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. None of the rulers of this age understood this; for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But, as it is written, 'What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him' - these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. For what human being knows what is truly human except the human spirit that is within? So also no one comprehends what is truly God's except the Spirit of God. Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that is from God, so that we may understand the gifts bestowed on us by God.

MATTHEW 5.13–20

'You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

'Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfil. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

POST COMUNION PRAYER

Merciful Father, who gave Jesus Christ to be for us the bread of life, that those who come to him should never hunger: draw us to the Lord in faith and love, that we may eat and drink with him at his table in the kingdom, where he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen
