CARDS FOR GOOD CAUSES

The annual Charity Card Shop will NOT be operating out of St Peter's Church this year. Last year's sales were very badly hit, so they are focussing their efforts on their online business and only trading from 75 'shops' nationally this year. The closest stores are Wimborne and Swanage if you wish to go shopping, or you can shop online at: <https://www.cardsforcharity.co.uk> They are hoping to return in the future so let's keep our fingers crossed for a better season ahead for them.

'UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURES'

Richard Lambert, has re-produced his three-volume book (£10 per copy) to help us all better understand the Bible (& Quran). The three volumes cover: What are the scriptures? How were the scriptures produced? and What do the scriptures mean? Packed full of interesting facts, he is donating all proceeds from these sales to the church, so please pop along to Marion's Bookstall in St Peter's and pick up your copies – he may even sign them for you!!

ST STEPHEN'S CHURCH GIFT DAY – 10TH OCTOBER

Sunday 10th October was Dedication and Gift Day at St Stephen's. People on the electoral roll and other regular donors received a letter asking them to make an additional contribution to help cover the ever-increasing costs of running St Stephen's Church. However, just because you didn't receive a letter doesn't mean you can't contribute! Please give as generously as you can & if you would like a copy of the letter, please get in touch with Lisa: btcp@live.co.uk

PARRY'S CAFÉ - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

If you're looking at ways to help for a couple of hours a week, what better way than to volunteer in our community café, tucked in the back at St Peter's. On Wednesdays & Fridays when there is a lunchtime recital/jazz concert, it can get busy and so some help would be really appreciated by the team. No previous experience necessary, as full training given. Please get in touch with Chris on 07831 175312 if you can give a little time to this much needed community outreach and can be a smiling welcomer to our church.

WEEKLY NEWS

You can keep in touch with what's happening across the parish by signing up for our weekly email at: btcp@live.co.uk and joining our mailing list.

SO MANY WAYS TO GIVE

There are many ways to sign up to giving, either through the Parish Giving Scheme, by Standing Order or Direct Debit, through our contactless card payment machine or via CAF Online through our St Peter's website. Please contact Lisa at btcp@live.co.uk who can give you guidance on next steps.

WELCOME

Welcome to St Peter's, St Stephen's & St Augustin's. Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. Children are very welcome - ask for the Sunday School & crèche at St Peter's. And accessible facilities are available (ask to be directed by a Sides-person). All welcome. Please stay on for a cup of tea!

COLLECT

God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church: by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Isaiah 53.4–12

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice, he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.

Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore, I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many and made intercession for the transgressors.

Hebrews 5.1–10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; ³and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. ⁴And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

So also, Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, 'You are my Son, today I have begotten you'; as he says also in another place, 'You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.'

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Mark 10.35–45

James and John, the sons of Zebdee, came forward to him and said to him, 'Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.' And he said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' And they said to him, 'Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.' But Jesus said to them, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?' They replied, 'We are able.'

Then Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.'

When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So, Jesus called them and said to them, 'You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God our Father, whose Son, the light unfailing, has come from heaven to deliver the world from the darkness of ignorance: let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life, and walk in it without stumbling; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
