'BRING A TIN TO CHURCH' for THE FOODBANK

Please can you continue to bring in donations weekly to church, as just bringing just one item each week, could provide them with over 100 items from BTCP weekly on a regular basis and would make a huge difference to desperate families. Please give your donations to your wardens/sides team or leave them in the special boxes after the main Sunday service and Lisa will drop them to the FoodBank each Monday. Items currently needed (Items in bold are URGENTLY NEEDED):

- LONGLIFF FRUIT JUICE – they have run out of completely
- TINNED FISH / Tinned meat / TINNED VEGETABLES
- Tinned soup / Pasta sauce / Peanut Butter
- TINNED FRUIT / Puddings (jelly, rice pudding, custard, sponge pudding and Angel Delight
- FRUIT JUICE / squash / UHT Milk / Tea / Coffee / Breakfast biscuits/cereal bars / savoury snacks

Alternatively, people who would like to help can donate money into the Bournemouth Foodbank Appeal.

CHURCH PASTORAL CARE VISITING TEAMS

Ian is re-establishing the church pastoral care groups. To find out more & discover if God might be calling you to this ministry, contact Lucinda (lucindaterry@hotmail.co.uk) or Sue Francis (sueannsport@yahoo.co.uk) & they will meet you for a chat about what is involved. They will also be running a short training course. There has already been encouraging response to this opportunity.

ST PETER'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

Can you spare a Sunday or two each month to help the new team that is coming together to help with re-establishing the Sunday School during the main Sunday morning service each week, it would make a difference to the growing number of young people attending church each week. Simply email ianterry@live.co.uk

'UNDERSTANDING THE SCRIPTURES'

Richard Lambert has updated his three-volume book (£10 per copy) to help us all better understand the Bible (& Quran). The three volumes cover: What are the scriptures? How were the scriptures produced? & What do the scriptures mean? Packed full of interesting facts, he is donating all proceeds to the church, so pop along to Marion's Bookstall in St Peter's to pick up your copies! Or email btcp@live.co.uk

SIDESPERSION TEAM - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Are you able to help for an hour or two once a month? It is not an onerous task to hand out the service booklets and give a friendly greeting on arrival & then gather them in afterwards. No experience necessary - full training given, plus you are never on your own. If you want to find out more with no obligation, please just get in touch with John at: john.slade@sladesproperty.co.uk

PARRY'S CAFÉ - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

If you're looking at ways to help for a couple of hours a week, what better way than to volunteer in our community café, tucked in the back at St Peter's. On Wednesdays & Fridays when there is a lunchtime recital/jazz concert, it can get busy and so some help would be really appreciated by the team. No previous experience necessary, as full training given. Please get in touch with Chris on 07831 175312

WELCOME

Romans 5.1–5

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Proverbs 8.1–4,22–31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice?

On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

‘To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth - when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

John 16.12–15

‘I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love: hold us firm in this faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever. Amen

Dear Friends,

This Refugee Week, 20th – 26th June, is exploring the theme of ‘Healing’. Through creativity and conversations, Refugee Week 2022 will be a celebration of community, mutual care, and the human ability to start again.

Healing means recovering from a painful experience or situation, so that we can continue to live. No-one understands this better than those who have lost their homes and had to build new lives from scratch. We have much to learn from refugees about holding onto hope when going on seems impossible – as well as about how art, creativity, prayer and community can help us to heal. Those going through the asylum system also know that healing is an ongoing process, made harder by poverty, housing difficulties and the threat of being detained or deported. Asking for change, so that refugees can truly feel safe, is an act of care.

Whether it’s about looking after ourselves and each other at difficult times, overcoming political divisions or coming together to fight for the survival of our shared planet, healing matters to all of us. Whoever and wherever you are, Refugee Week 2022 offers an opportunity to imagine and work for a world where healing replaces harm, and care becomes our shared currency.

The poem, ‘how we became refugees’, by Ahmad Al-Dabagh, takes us deeper into the refugee identity:

when i was younger
i lived in a citadel built on sacred earth overlooking ancient rivers dijlah, forat fragrant and fertile where palm trees floated upon clouds of molten gold one day, the world discovered and fought over the riches beneath the sand
we were forced to abandon our ancestral home to seek solace on distant foreign land

‘how we became refugees’ is an allegory for the Iraq war which resulted in the deracination and displacement of millions. For Ahmad, it is a personal story, written from the perspective of a parent who has to explain to their child why they left their homeland and how they became refugees. She and her family fled Iraq abruptly due to the war and they migrated to Australia in 1994.

How can teachers and schools staff best support the psycho-emotional needs of students from sanctuary seeking backgrounds?

An online workshop was held by Schools of Sanctuary on 12 May 2022 as part of the run up to Refugee Week 2022, with the theme ‘Healing’. I joined over 80 teachers and school staff at the session, which looked at the challenges facing sanctuary seeking children and young people, approaches to supporting them in the classroom, and how a ‘healing’ approach can benefit students of all backgrounds.

About Schools of Sanctuary

Schools of Sanctuary is a national network of over 300 primary and secondary schools all committed to creating a culture of welcome and inclusion for refugees and people seeking asylum. Driven by teachers, school staff, parents, governors and community groups, this network supports the thousands of young people seeking sanctuary in the UK, raises awareness of the issues facing people in the asylum system, challenges misconceptions and builds social cohesion. Hundreds of schools take part in Refugee Week every year, using creative activities to grow their understanding of refugee experiences, and show their support for people seeking safety. City of Sanctuary (coordinators of Schools of Sanctuary) and the National Education Union are national Refugee Week partners.

Ordination of Dr Rob Sawdy

On Sunday, 3rd July, during the main morning service in Winchester Cathedral, our good friend Rob Sawdy will be ordained Deacon. Lucinda and I will be there to support him and it would be lovely if others of you were also there. There is ample space in the Cathedral but you will want to get there well in advance so that you don't find yourselves quite near the back. A number of cars could probably offer spare seats to the ordination and we'll all gather round Rob for a celebratory lunch near the Cathedral afterwards. Let me know if you'd like to come.

Communion will continue to be offered in one kind (bread only, dipped lightly into the consecrated wine) to those who queue, one by one, distanced, in the main aisle. However, seen within the context of these past two years, this is a great step forward. We would value your views on this. Although we could now return to offering the chalice to everyone, quite a few people have told me that they feel safer staying the way we are at the moment. Do let me know what you feel.

CONFIRMATION

Would you like to prepare for Confirmation? Are you coming-on for the age of ten (or older – there is no upper age limit!)? Have a word with me and we shall make it happen. Bishop Debbie to coming to confirm candidates at St Peter's during our 10am Communion on Sunday, 24th July. Let me know if you'd like to prepare to be confirmed at that service. The more the merrier!

God bless you richly this coming week.
