COLLECT

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Genesis 18.20–32

Then the Lord said, 'How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave their sin! I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me; and if not, I will know.'

So the men turned from there, and went towards Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the Lord. Then Abraham came near and said, 'Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked? Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it? Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?' And the Lord said, 'If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake.' Abraham answered, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?' And he said, 'I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.' Again he spoke to him, 'Suppose forty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of forty I will not do it.' Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there.' He answered, 'I will not do it, if I find thirty there.' He said, 'Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it.' Then he said, 'Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there.' He answered, 'For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.'

Colossians 2.6–15

As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

Luke 11.1–13

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.'

And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

'So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Dear Friends,

Come and celebrate God's love, shown to us in Jesus' death and resurrection, at this Sunday's Baptism and Confirmation, led by Bishop Debbie, at St Peter's at 10am. All are welcome!

We have a dream of being loved beyond all measure. In Baptism and Confirmation, God helps us, through His Holy Spirit, to know that is a reality.

In his book, 'God has a dream', Desmond Tutu points to our part in spreading God's love and enabling everyone with whom we have contact to experience the reality of the dream. He writes:

"If more of us could serve as centres of love and oases of peace, we might just be able to turn around a great deal of the conflict, the hatred, the jealousies, and the violence. This is a way that we can take on the suffering and transform it. But, we must be careful, for we can so easily hurt one another. Without thinking, we can extinguish a weak, flickering light. It is far too easy to discourage, all too easy to criticise, to complain, to rebuke. Let us try, instead, to see even a small amount of good in each person and concentrate on that. Let us be quicker to praise than to find fault. Let us be quicker to thank others than to complain. Let us be gentle with God's children."

We can start by gently supporting and encouraging those who will be baptised and confirmed; let us hold them in our prayers and be there in person if we can. These are the people we are asked to support, and to help them discover – and hang onto – the reality of their dream:

To be baptised and confirmed:

Jordan Bushnell
Tina Follins, (from Lymington)
Meysam Ghorbani

To be confirmed:

Chioma Destiny Rose Anis
Jake Bartlett
Elizabeth Catherine Mary Courts
Ivan Maysun
Steve Maysun
Amelia Wass
Melissa Yiyit

The Mayor and Mayoress of Bournemouth will be with us to support the candidates. I very much hope that you might also be there!

10am St Augustin's: Communion: The Rev'd Steve Parselle.

10.45am St Stephen's: Communion: The Rev'd Stephen Holmes.

4pm St Peter's: Evening Prayer with hymns.

Next Sunday, 31st July; Trinity 7.

10am St Peter's: Communion: The Rev'd Steve Parselle.

10am St Augustin's: Communion: I shall preside and Scott Canadas, an ordinand on placement with us, from the College of the Resurrection, Mirfield, will preach.

10.45am St Stephen's: Communion: The Rev'd Stephen Holmes.

2pm St Stephen's: Holy Baptism of George Buller.

4pm St Peter's: Evening Prayer with hymns.

Echoing the words of Martin Luther King, Desmond Tutu writes:

"God says to you, I have a dream. Please help me to realize it. It is a dream of a world whose ugliness and squalor and poverty, whose war and hostility, greed and harsh competitiveness, alienation and disharmony are changed into their glorious counterparts."

God bless you richly as you dream the Resurrection dream this coming week.

Ian
