

Census Factsheet for St. Augustins Parish

This area has been created by aggregating Output Areas (the smallest geography available of around 150 households). It is therefore a "best-fit" match with St. Augustins Parish.

This area has a resident population of 2,096 and an average household size of 1.6, smaller than the Borough figure of 2.1. The area has a smaller under 18 population and a much larger 65 years and above population than Bournemouth, a comparison that is mirrored on a regional and national scale as well.

The area is slightly more ethnically diverse than in Bournemouth as a whole, with White-British ethnicity accounting for 89.9% of the population in this area.

Self-employment is slightly higher in this area than in the Borough, whilst at 22.4%, the retired population is higher than for Bournemouth. There is a significantly smaller proportion of part-time employees in this area when compared to Bournemouth, whilst a higher proportion work full-time.

Owner occupation is lower in this area than in Bournemouth but the area has a larger public rental sector than in the Borough. The majority of accommodation is in purpose built blocks of flats or similar, a proportion over 4 times greater than the national figure and over twice as large as that for Bournemouth.

Lone Pensioner households account for over 33% of households in this area, compared to a figure of 17.5% for Bournemouth as a whole.
