MAY MUSIC FESTIVAL 2019

This is the twenty-fourth annual celebration of music within the context of worship to be held here at St Stephen's.

Our special guests this year include Carlton Etherington, Organist and Director of Music of Tewkesbury Abbey, who will be giving the Whitlock organ recital.

We welcome James Lancelot, who recently retired as Organist and Master of the Choristers of Durham Cathedral and will be giving the lecture.

We welcome back Chichester Cathedral Choir directed by Charles Harrison who will be singing the Saturday Festival Evensong.

The festival opens on the Friday with an evening of music and dancing played by the Red Fez Orchestra.

On Monday the choir of St Paul's Covent Garden directed by Nick Gallagher will be singing Choral Evensong.

St Stephen's Choir will be joined by our neighbours Richmond Hill St Andrew's URC Choir for the Saturday Mass, and this year our Festival Organist is Sean Tucker.

On Sunday morning the St Stephen's Choir, festival singers with soloists and chamber orchestra will be singing liturgically the "Spaur" Mass by Mozart.

On Sunday evening we are delighted to welcome Durlston Court School Choir who will be joining the festival singers, directed by Rob Dishington in a programme of orchestral and choral music to include the Magnificat by Pergolesi.

On Monday the lunchtime recital is given by the Whitchurch Ensemble playing trios by Beethoven and Glinka.

The final event on Monday evening will include the Gloria by Vivaldi sung by female voices and accompanied by strings and organ.

DIRECTORS OF MUSIC:

DANNY CAMPBELL, ROB DISHINGTON & IAN HARRISON

RECTOR OF BOURNEMOUTH : FR. IAN TERRY

LEADER OF THE FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA : JANE BULTZ

We are very grateful to, Deric-Scott, Durlston Court School Trust and the Bournemouth Association of Organists who are generous sponsors of the Festival.

Access, including parking, is available for the disabled.

There are W.C. facilities within the church and in the Church Hall.

TICKETS

Tickets for all the events are available in advance. (See the booking form overleaf) and will also be available on the door.

There is no reserved seating for any of the events, but if requested, space for wheelchairs will be available.

BECOME A PATRON

A small minimum donation of £25 enables you to be a patron of the Festival with your name included in the Festival Programme, if you apply before 15th March. All patrons will receive a free copy of the programme. (If you are a UK taxpayer your donation as a patron can be significantly increased by utilising "Gift Aid").

ST STEPHEN'S MUSIC FUND

The Fund is being established to provide financial support for choral scholars or professional singers to maintain the musical tradition at St Stephen's in future years, please add on a donation for this project when booking.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Please book in advance to join us for the Festival Lunch.

This is a three-course set menu roast lunch. A vegetarian alternative is available if requested in advance.

It is helpful if you book for the Saturday Festival Tea, a marvellous spread of sandwiches and cakes, (there will be a number of tickets available on the door.)

On Monday the tea after Evensong is open to all.

MAILING LIST

Data Protection legislation requires that if you wish to be included on our mailing list for further musical events you should do this by ticking the box provided on the booking form.
