WELCOME

Welcome to our parish of St Peter's, St Stephen's & St Augustin's. Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. All welcome. Please stay on for a cup of tea and a chat after the service!

JOHN TURPIN RIP

Many of our parish are asking for details of John's funeral, which has not been finalised as yet, so as soon as we know exactly when it will be taking place, the Parish Office will let you all know, as we appreciate that many of you will wish to attend. May he rest in peace and rise in glory. On behalf of the PCC.

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

Richard Lambert is once again meeting with a small group to discuss the book of I Corinthians, in the downstairs meeting room on Sundays after the main service at St Peter's, from approximately 11.45am. Everyone is welcome to come along and see what it all about, but a lively discussion is assured! If you want to find out a little more in advance, feel free to either call or email Richard. His details are in the Regular Features section of Pew News.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

We are looking to run a set of confirmation classes for anyone who wishes to be confirmed in their faith, led by The Rev'd Dr David Wheeler, with a service of confirmation with David and Bishop Geoff later in the year. We have a couple of choristers and a couple of adults who have shown their interest so far and so we are asking if there are others of you out there that would also be interested in learning more about it. If you are interested, no matter what your age (it's never too late!), please get in touch with Lisa (07971062892) or David (07484 361507) for a quick chat to find out more. For those who have shown some interest please call Lisa so she can get all of your contact details down and find out when you are available etc.

FOODBANK DONATIONS

This week, there are several critical stock levels on essential items that could use your support with: Tinned carrots/sweetcorn/tomatoes and meat (especially with ring pulls), Packet and tinned soups; Sauces (e.g. Ketchup and mayo); Sweet and savoury spreads; Single-serve Cereals; Savoury snacks, Biscuits and chocolate. For toiletries, we are especially short of soap and shower gel, shampoo and conditioner, disposable razors, shaving gel/foam, and deodorant. Toiletries for men are very much in demand. Washing up liquid and strong carrier bags are always needed too.

DORSET ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE WEEK

September 6th-15th is Dorset Architectural Heritage week where local buildings of interest open their doors to visitors to come in and look around the building. As it is the 200th anniversary of the birth of the architect of St Peter's, George Edmund Street, we thought it fitting to register and to invite people to come and see his beautiful creation. So between these dates St Peter's will be open as usual but hopefully with more visitors marvelling at its beauty both inside and out. If you are available between those dates, please pop in to the church and talk to any visitors we may have and if any of you would like to help out in Parry's cafe to give them an even warmer welcome, please let one of the team know.

ST AUGUSTIN'S & ST PETER'S ONLY

2 Samuel 6.1-5, 12b-19

David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the Lord of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim. They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark. David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the Lord with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

It was told King David, 'The Lord has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.' So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing; and when those who bore the ark of the Lord had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. David danced before the Lord with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod. So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

As the ark of the Lord came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the Lord; and she despised him in her heart. They brought in the ark of the Lord, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt-offerings and offerings of well-being before the Lord. When David had finished offering the burnt-offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hosts, and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

ST STEPHEN'S ONLY - Amos 7.7-15

This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. And the Lord said to me, 'Amos, what do you see?' And I said, 'A plumbline.' Then the Lord said, 'See, I am setting a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by; the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.' Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, 'Amos has conspired against you in the very centre of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos has said, "Jeroboam shall die by the sword and Israel must go into exile away from his land." ' And Amaziah said to Amos, 'O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom.'

Then Amos answered Amaziah, 'I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, and the Lord took me from following the flock, and the Lord said to me, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

BOTH CHURCHES

Ephesians 1.3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Mark 6.14-29

King Herod heard of it, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.'

For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptizer.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen
