JOHN TURPIN FUNERAL

CHRISTCHURCH PRIORY - THURSDAY 25TH JULY, 10:30AM

Many of our parish are asking for details of John's funeral, which although still has not been fully finalised as yet, we can at least the time and place. Can we ask that you please let Lisa in the Parish Office know if you wish to attend, as the Priory need an indication of numbers. Don't forget that parking is an issue in Christchurch town centre! May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

INTERREGNUM UPDATE FROM THE PCC

As many will be aware, we were not successful in the first round of advertising for a new Priest in Charge for the Parish. Last Tuesday evening, the PCC met, and we're really pleased to advise that a panel has been selected to interview, at the end of next week, a candidate for the post of Priest in Charge. The PCC also heard from Michael, Bournemouth's Area Dean, that it is proposed that we will have a chaplain in place at St Stephen's and also one in St Augustin's. They will be in place to lead worship and provide pastoral care and to provide consistency in ministry. There is a candidate in place for St Stephen's and we are prayerfully seeking someone for St Augustin's. This is great news and will provide more consistent care to our parish than we have had in many years. These postings are not dependent on finding a new incumbent, which again is good news that one is not reliant on the other. Please hold the PCC and the interview panel in your prayers at this time of discernment. We will be back with a further update when there is anything to update you on – so watch this space!

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

We are now looking to finalise the details for confirmation classes for anyone who wishes to be confirmed in their faith, led by The Rev'd Dr David Wheeler, with a service of confirmation with David and Bishop Geoff later in the year. We have a couple of choristers and a couple of adults who have shown their interest so far and so we are asking if there are others of you out there that would also be interested in learning more about it. If you are interested, no matter what your age (you are never too old!), please get in touch with Lisa (07971062892) or David (07484 361507) for a quick chat to find out more. For those who have shown some interest please call Lisa direct so she can get your full contact details down and find out when you are available etc.

FOODBANK DONATIONS

This week, there are several critical stock levels on essential items that could use your support with:

Tinned meat (especially with ring pulls); Tinned fish; Tinned fruit; Coffee

For toiletries, we are especially short of shower gel, shampoo, conditioner, disposable razors, shaving gel/foam, bars or tablets of soap, and deodorant. Unexpired unopened sun cream is a seasonal need, especially for clients without shelter. Washing up liquid and strong carrier bags are always needed too.

COLLECT

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ST AUGUSTIN'S & ST PETER'S ONLY

2 Samuel 7.1–14a

Now when the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.' Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you.'

But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?' Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.

ST STEPHEN'S ONLY

Jeremiah 23.1–6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

BOTH CHURCHES

Ephesians 2.11–22

So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called 'the uncircumcision' by those who are called 'the circumcision'—a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands—remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God.

Mark 6.30–34, 53–56

The apostles gathered around Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Strengthen for service, Lord, the hands that have taken holy things; may the ears which have heard your word be deaf to clamour and dispute; may the tongues which have sung your praise be free from deceit; may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love shine with the light of hope; and may the bodies which have been fed with your body be refreshed with the fullness of your life; glory to you for ever. Amen
