WELCOME

Welcome to our parish of St Peter's, St Stephen's & St Augustin's. Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. All welcome. Please stay on for a cup of tea and a chat after the service!

JOHN TURPIN RIP

Many of our parish are asking for details of John's funeral, which has not been finalised as yet, so as soon as we know exactly when it will be taking place, the Parish Office will let you all know, as we appreciate that many of you will wish to attend. May he rest in peace and rise in glory. The PCC

BIBLE STUDY GROUP

Richard Lambert is once again meeting with a small group to discuss the book of I Corinthians, in the downstairs meeting room on Sundays after the main service at St Peter's, from approximately 11.45am. Everyone is welcome to come along and see what it all about but a lively discussion is assured! If you want to find out a little more in advance, feel free to either call or email Richard. His details are in the Regular Features section of Pew News.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

We are looking to run a set of confirmation classes for anyone who wishes to be confirmed in their faith, led by The Rev'd Dr David Wheeler, with a service of confirmation with David and Bishop Geoff later in the year. We have a couple of choristers and a couple of adults who have shown their interest so far and so we are asking if there are others of you out there that would also be interested in learning more about it. If you are interested, no matter what your age (it's never too late!), please get in touch with Lisa (07971062892) or David (07484 361507) for a quick chat to find out more. For those who have shown some interest please call Lisa so she can get all of your contact details down and find out when you are available etc.

FOODBANK DONATIONS

This week, there are several critical stock levels on essential items that could use your support with: Tinned carrots/sweetcorn/tomatoes and meat (especially with ring pulls), Packet and tinned soups; Sauces (e.g. Ketchup and mayo); Sweet and savoury spreads; Single-serve Cereals; Savoury snacks, Biscuits and chocolate. For toiletries, we are especially short of soap and shower gel, shampoo and conditioner, disposable razors, shaving gel/foam, and deodorant. Toiletries for men are very much in demand. Washing up liquid and strong carrier bags are always needed too.

DORSET ARCHITECTURAL HERITAGE WEEK

September 6th-15th is Dorset Architectural Heritage week where local buildings of interest open their doors to visitors to come in and look around the building. As it is the 200th anniversary of the birth of the architect of St Peter's, George Edmund Street, we thought it fitting to register and to invite people to come and see his beautiful creation. So between these dates St Peter's will be open as usual but hopefully with more visitors marvelling at its beauty both inside and out. If you are available between those dates, please pop in to the church and talk to any visitors we may have and if any of you would like to help out in Parry's cafe to give them an even warmer welcome, please let one of the team know.

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ST AUGUSTIN'S & ST PETER'S ONLY

2 Samuel 5.1–5, 9–10

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, 'Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The Lord said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.' So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the Lord, the God of hosts, was with him.

ST STEPHEN'S ONLY

Ezekiel 2.1–5

He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God.' Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

BOTH CHURCHES

2 Corinthians 12.2–10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Mark 6.1–13

He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
