BOURNEMOUTH PLANNED PROTESTS

Dorset Police would like to reassure communities of its commitment to prevent disorder and enable peaceful protests in Bournemouth. The Force is fully aware of protests that are due to take place in the town centre on Sunday 18 August 2024 and robust plans are in place to deal with any reports of public disorder. Officers have been liaising with the organisers to ensure people can exercise their right to protest legally and safely, while minimising the impact on residents, visitors and businesses. The approach to this event has involved partner agencies from across Dorset working together and all are committed to ensuring our communities are kept safe. Assistant Chief Constable Mark Callaghan, of Dorset Police, said: "We understand that members of the public may be feeling concerned about the planned protest activity in Bournemouth following the unacceptable violence that has been seen elsewhere across the country. I would like to reassure the public that we have been moving at pace to ensure we have all available resources in place to respond to any reports of disorder. This has included drafting in resources from other forces and these dedicated and specially trained public order officers will be on duty working tirelessly to ensure there is no significant disruption to the public. Anyone who will be in Bournemouth town centre on Sunday can expect to see a heightened police presence. We are there to protect you and to enable peaceful protests to take place. We also have officers and staff who will be answering the usual calls from the public, responding to incidents and investigating offences."

WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL PASSES

Because we are part of Winchester Diocese, we have been given 6 Annual Passes that can be used by any of our parishioners and visiting friends to gain free entry when visiting the cathedral. Should you wish to have use of these at any time, please contact Lisa in the parish office to arrange this.

ST STEPHEN'S CHURCH ROAD CLOSURES

Part of Braidley Road will be closed from 27th August until the 6th September. St Stephen's Way will still be accessible from Bourne Avenue.

FOODBANK DONATIONS

This week, there are several critical stock levels on essential items that could use your support with:

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

ST PETER'S & ST AUGUSTIN'S ONLY

1 KINGS 2.10–12; 3.3–14

Then David slept with his ancestors and was buried in the city of David. The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned for seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places. The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, 'Ask what I should give you.' And Solomon said, 'You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart towards you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?'

It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, 'Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you. I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honour all your life; no other king shall compare with you. If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life.'

ST STEPHEN'S ONLY - PROVERBS 9.1–6

Wisdom has built her house, she has hewn her seven pillars. She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine, she has also set her table. She has sent out her servant-girls, she calls from the highest places in the town, 'You that are simple, turn in here!'

To those without sense she says, 'Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed. Lay aside immaturity, and live, and walk in the way of insight.'

ALL CHURCHES

EPHESIANS 5.15–20

Be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

JOHN 6.51–58

I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
