DON'T FORGET...

All notices for next week's newsletter to be sent to the Parish Office by Wednesday. Thank you!

IF YOU WISH TO BE ADDED TO THE WEEKLY MAILING LIST PLEASE CONTACT THE PARISH OFFICE, AS IT'S A GREAT WAY OF KEEPING IN TOUCH WITH WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE PARISH

WELCOME

Welcome to our parish of St Peter's, St Stephen's & St Augustin's. Please make yourself known to one of our Sides People or Duty Warden and we hope you will feel at home with us. All welcome. Please stay on for a cup of tea and a chat after the service! Colouring packs for the children are available in the play area at the back of St Peter's. Please help yourself.

FOODBANK DONATIONS

This week, there are several critical stock levels on essential items that could use your support with: Sauces (ketchup/mayo etc), Tinned vegetables (ring-pull), Single-serve Cereals (instant oat pots, Weetabix etc), Ring Pull Ravioli, Vegetarian options (eg veggie chilli/mac n cheese), Chocolate and Sweet treats. For toiletries, we are especially short of shower gel, shampoo, conditioner, shaving gel/foam, disposable razors, deodorant, soap bars. Washing up liquid & strong carrier bags are always gratefully received too!

CHRISTMAS HAMPER FOODBANK APPEAL TO THE PARISH

If you remember, last year we pledged donations of 1L cartons of long-life milk. This year, the Foodbank need us to donate 230 tins of soup to complete their Christmas Hampers and need them by early December. So please can you all donate one or two tins into the weekly collection for the next few weeks, as they really do not cost too much at all. Or if easier, can you spare £1 (or more) and Lisa will go and purchase the tins for you. A tin costs just 62p from Aldi, hence the £1 donation request. If you wish to make a donation, please put in in an envelope, marked for the Christmas Hamper Appeal, and drop it into the collection plate, a church safe, or hand to one of your DCC members and they will make sure she is notified and collects it in time. Your donations will be gratefully received and delivered to Citygate church in December. Thank you all!!

CHRISTMAS CARDS ON SALE NOW

Marion's Souvenir Stall inside St Peter's is now getting stocked up with Christmas cards (plus cards for all other occasions too!), so please come and see what she has to offer. If you pop in and it is unmanned, the contactless payment point is just to the righthand side of the stall or put your money into the safe next to it.

WILLIAM TEMPLE MEETINGS 2024-2025 SEASON

Do you want to hear a thought-provoking talk about the Christian faith or other faiths and their application to contemporary issues? Then why not come along, where you will be informed and often challenged? The new season of talks begin on 14th October at The Marsham Court Hotel. There is an optional meal beforehand at 6pm and the talk starts after coffee/tea at 7.30pm. For full details of all of the planned talks pick up a flyer in church or check out the posters on the noticeboards in church or on our websites. For further information, please contact John Newbold on Tel: 01202 761749 or via Email: jjnewbold@btinternet.com

Matthew Kelley is an organist and composer from Winchester, currently based at Canford School where he works as Organist in Residence, working with both teaching and recital activities within the music department, as well as being principal accompanist for school performances and music events. Away from the school, he has a freelance career playing the organ for services and working as a recitalist across Greater London and Hampshire, concentrating on Baroque literature and in the field of music for film and television.

Matthew graduated from Durham University in 2012 with a Bachelor's degree in Music, before then, he held the post of Assistant Director of St Chad's College, and worked for the Bournemouth University Church Society through 2023. Afterwards, he spent two years in a cathedral setting, working as Organist at Salisbury Cathedral until 2023, during which he also held the position of Acting Assistant Organist. He has also previously worked as an organist at King Edward VI School in Southampton, Cathedral of Salisbury and Great St Mary's, and is currently on a sabbatical from the latter.

As well as a performer, Matthew is an award-winning composer, winning the junior category of the BBC Proms Young Composer Competition in 2012 with his piece 'Prelude for Strings'. In 2014, his piece 'Clair de Lune' won first prize within the Isaac Watts Composition Competition, celebrating the 100th anniversary of the composer's birth. He has also been commissioned to write for groups such as the BBC Singers and the King's College London Youth Choir, and has two albums, 'Morning' and 'Evening', released through the BBC.

This is the list of this year's recitals. Next year's series will begin on Saturday 7th April 2025

SATURDAY 2ND NOVEMBER

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

WISDOM 3.1–9

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

REVELATION 21.1–6a

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.'

And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.'

Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.'

Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.'

JOHN 11.32–44

When Mary, the sister of Martha and Lazarus, came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?'

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
